Your application(s) for accreditation has been approved.

In extending accreditation for CLE activities, the Commission reserves the right to have a representative attend all programs without charge to the Commission and/or its representatives and requires adherence to its accreditation standards found on page two of the Application for Accreditation.

Click this link to review the Application for Accreditation.

Within 30 days of the CLE, attendance is required to be furnished to the Commission with a list of the South Carolina attendees, with South Carolina Bar numbers and attendance totals indicated for each attendee. When submitting a list of attendees, or other correspondence, please refer to the course number(s) indicated above.

All programming is approved on a calendar year basis and expires annually on December 31 of the year in which the program was presented. Programming must be resubmitted (via a comprehensive application packet) in subsequent years to retain accreditation approval. Please note that an application for online, on-demand, teleconference, and in-house programming must be received and approved by the Commission prior to the presentation of the program.

Sincerely,

Commission on CLE
